

Floor Shopping Checklist

Bring this sheet with you to your design consultation. It will help your RiteRug specialist recommend a range of flooring options that perfectly meet your needs.

Things to Consider

What's the primary way you use this room? _____

Do you have kids? Pets? How often do you entertain or have overnight guests?

What is your home's architectural style?

(Traditional, Colonial, Arts & Crafts, Split-Level, etc) _____

What is your personal decorating style?

(Modern, Country, Classic/Formal, Art Deco, etc.) _____

What is your color scheme? _____

What other rooms can you see from this room? What type of flooring do they have?

Are you looking for installation, or do you plan to DIY? _____

What's your budget? _____

How important is it to you:

That the flooring be able to disguise dirt or footprints? _____

To be able to clean the floor a certain way?

(Do you prefer vacuuming over dust-mopping, for example?) _____

Room Details

What's your current flooring type (carpet, tile, etc.)? _____

What type of subfloor (what's underneath) do you have? _____

Room width (in feet or inches): _____ Room depth (in feet or inches): _____

Is there a closet? If so, dimensions (in feet or inches): _____ × _____

How many doors? _____ How many windows? _____

How much traffic does it get? ___ High ___ Medium ___ Low

What to Bring to Your Design Consultation

- This sheet with the room details you noted above
- Photos of the room from several angles, or a simple drawing
- Paint chips, fabric swatches, or wallpaper samples if you have them
- We'd also love to see your Pinterest board, favorite images on Instagram, or articles you clipped from decorating magazines—anything that helps us understand the look you want

Questions to Ask Your Flooring Specialist

- Is this flooring stain resistant?
- What is the warranty?
- How do I care for and maintain it?
- Is installation available? When and at what cost?
- What type of padding or subfloor do you recommend, and why?
- Do you take away and recycle my old flooring? If so, is there a charge?
- Is there anything I should know about this flooring that will change my room as it currently is, such as seams or pile height?